ORDER:

In the reference 1st read above, it has been stipulated that:

“For the purpose of achieving adequacy of Scheduled Castes/ Scheduled Tribes, in services, the Rule of Reservation in making incharge arrangements in exigencies of administration for holding higher promotional posts shall be followed, whenever such arrangements are made after obtaining relaxation of Rule 10 (h) of A.P. State and Subordinate Service Rules, 1996.

In the reference 2nd read above, Sri M.Shankar, SC (G) has made a representation for considering her candidature by filling Backlog vacancy of Executive Engineer against the 7th Roaster Point which is meant for SC (G) and for implementation of the provisions made in the reference 1st read above.

In the reference 3rd read above, the Hon'ble Andhra Pradesh Administrative Tribunal in its order dt.04.11.2011 in O.A. No. 4230/2009 filed by Sri M.Shankar, Deputy Executive Engineer has made the following order:

“The O.A. is disposed of with a direction to the respondents to examine the case of the applicant in the light of the provisions contained in contained in G.O.Ms.No.2, dated 9.1.2004 and if at all the applicant comes within the zone of consideration, the respondents are directed to consider his claim and pass appropriate orders with regard to promotion of the applicant.”

In the reference 4th read above, (3) posts of Executive Engineers were sanctioned and they are vacant.

In the reference 5th read above, the Engineer-in-Chief (TW), Hyderabad has reported that upto 14.06.2011 the sanctioned cadre strength of Executive Engineers in Tribal Welfare Engineering Department is (9) out of (9) posts, (16) members were accommodated till date by way of promotions / incharge arrangements. Due to non-availability of eligible SC(W) candidate in the previous incharge arrangements, the 7th Roaster point which is meant for SC(G) was filled with General Graduate and the said roster point is carried forward.

The Engineer-in-Chief (TW), Hyderabad has also stated that, there are several court cases pending with regard to seniority from the cadre of Assistant Engineer /Assistant Executive Engineer / Deputy Executive Engineer and the finalization of seniority likely to take some more time, hence it is necessary to fill up the vacancies of Executive Engineers on Incharge basis in relaxation of Rule 10 (h) of Andhra Pradesh State and Subordinate Service Rules, 1996 in order to cope up with the day-to-day functioning of the Department.

Government have examined the proposal of Engineer-in-Chief, Tribal Welfare Hyderabad and decided to appoint Sri M.Shankar, SC (G) Deputy Executive Engineer as in-charge Executive Engineer.

Accordingly Sri M.Shankar, Deputy Executive Engineer, Kothaguda, Warangal District is appointed as In-charge Executive Engineer on her own pay in relaxation of Rule 10 (h) of Andhra Pradesh State and Subordinate Service Rules 1996 and the posting orders will be issued separately.

The above in-charge arrangement is only an adhoc arrangement and not a promotion to the post of Executive Engineer.

The above Officer posted as Incharge Executive Engineer, Tribal Welfare is informed that his posting does not confer on his any right or claim for the post of Executive Engineer, Tribal Welfare or to any claim for the seniority or promotion in future. Similarly, this adhoc incharge arrangement would not adversely affect the rights of any of the parties before the Court.

The Engineer-in-Chief, Tribal Welfare, Hyderabad, is requested to take necessary further action accordingly. This order shall come into force with immediate effect.
